What's New In?

Scroll to Bottom is a Pidgin plugin that automatically scrolls chat history of created conversation windows to the bottom. It is not necessary to use the mouse to scroll messages back to the bottom, because it does it automatically. A public web page of Pidgin 2.2.2 (included in Ubuntu repositories) was used to generate the default configuration. The configuration can be edited to suit your needs and not have the default settings applied. Installation: First you need to have installed gettext. The gettext package is available in the repos. Since we will be using one of the gettext translatable functions, this step is not required for the package. `$ sudo apt-get install gettext` If you want to create a new Pidgin Plugin, you need to extract gettext. What you need to do is go to the directory you want to create the plugin, to extract gettext here. `$ cd /usr/local/share/pim/ $ tar xvfz gettext-1.10.tar.gz` Scroll to Bottom extension will take two arguments one for the username and the other one for the password. To use scroll to bottom you should go to the menu Edit > Plugin Settings > Scroll to Bottom and enter the username and the password. How to use scroll to bottom: Here is the workflow of using this extension: 1- Type in the chat to insert the message with the maximum length of the chat history 2- Press the right alt key of your keyboard and use the scroll button to the bottom of the chat history (with the default configuration) 3- You will see the bottom of the chat history 4- If you want to see to the bottom of the chat you should press alt again Some of the features implemented (not all of them): Automatic scrolling the chat window to the bottom with messages Reverse (back to top) the chat window when you press alt Control + scroll to bottom No part of this plugin may be modified or redistributed without prior written permission from the author.
